

Bewertungen des Wine Enthusiast Magazine

Prinz von Hessen 2007 Johannisberger Klaus Erstes Gewächs Riesling (Rheingau)

Appellation: Rheingau, Germany

Score: 91

Struck flint and vegetable oil give this wine a decidedly unfruity style, instead suggesting liquid stone, with just hints of peachy ripeness. Yet the wine is powerfully built, finishing oily, rich and dry. —
J.C. (12/1/2011) — 91

Prinz von Hessen 2007 Johannisberger Klaus Kabinett Trocken Riesling (Rheingau)

Appellation: Rheingau, Germany

Score: 89

Attractive citrus and struck flint aromas give way to ripe apple and pineapple flavors on the palate, where the wine is medium bodied and pleasantly plump. Finishes long, briny and with just a touch of sweetness. —
J.C. (12/1/2011) — 89